

Jennifer Juniper

A journey beyond the muse

Jenny Boyd

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Jenny Boyd's extraordinary life is the stuff of movies and novels, a story of incredible people and places at a pivotal time in the 20th century.

As an up-and-coming young model, Jenny found herself at the heart of Carnaby Street in London, immersed in the fashion and pop culture of the Swinging 60s. With boyfriend Mick Fleetwood, sister Pattie Boyd, George Harrison and the rest of the Beatles, she lived the London scene.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jenny Boyd, twice married to Mick Fleetwood of Fleetwood Mac, found herself at the forefront of the world of rock and roll in the sixties - and its fame, money, drugs and heartache. Struggling in the darkness to find and develop her own voice and identity, Jenny went to college, achieving a Masters in Counseling Psychology and a PhD in Humanities. Her dissertation on musicians and creativity became the critically-acclaimed book Musicians in Tune.
