ABOUT THIS BOOK

1933: A homeless veteran is found dead under railway arches in Berlin, apparently killed by an army dagger. Gereon Rath is brought onto the case just as the Reichstag mysteriously burns down. Unsettled by the Nazis' tightening grip, he and Charlotte Ritter must also contend with their political colleagues. The new Germany is frightening, but police work must go on even among book-burning and marching, rising paranoia and fear.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Volker Kutscher studied German, Philosophy and History, and worked as a newspaper editor prior to writing his first detective novel. Kutscher now works as a full-time author and lives in Cologne.
